from the most distinguished Scholars in the Anglican

From the Archbishop and Primate of Australia.

"The writer has adopted an exhaustive method in his treatment of the subject, and the book is a valuable repertory of all that is pertinent in argument and information about the question. I may find myself differing now and then from particular assertions of opinion, but admire and appreciate Dr. Lowndes' successful presentation of the whole argument, in his remarkable 'Vindication.'"

From the Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney.

"You have conferred a very great boon on the whole Church. The work is of inestimable value to the whole Church throughout the world."

From the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, D.D., Bishop of Central New York.

"Making and filling a permanent place, in the highest literature, for a defence of the Faith to which scholars, authorities, and generations to come must look with grateful satisfaction and for instruction."

From the Bishop of Truro.

From the Rt. Rev. and Hon. AUGUSTUS LEGGE, D.D., Bishop of Lichfield.

"A work of permanent value and setting forth fully and clearly the principles of Scriptural and Primitive Authority and National Church Government."

From the Rt. Rev. MANDELL CREIGHTON, D.D., Bishop of London.

"Dr. Lowndes' 'Vindication of Anglican Orders' is a work of great importance, and is a monument of careful research.
"The whole Church is under a debt of gratitude to the author."

From the Bishop of Los Angeles.

"The books form a marvellous compendium of information. I feel that Dr. Lowndes has conferred a great boon upon the Anglican Communion."

From the Bishop of Southern Florida.

"I have been able to enjoy the great pleasure of reading and indeed of going over for the second time the admirable work of the Rev. Dr. Lowndes, 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.' I have thoroughly enjoyed it. I regard it as a monumental work, if not an epoch-making book, at the very least an epoch-marking production."

VINDICATION OF

From Bishop Mitchinson, Master of Pembroke.

"I took the opportunity of my month's residence at Gloucester this Christmas to study Dr. Lowndes' 'Vindication of Anglican Orders' and am much impressed by its thoroughness, its lucidity, its excellent arrangement, and its general completeness. It will, unless I am deceived in my judgment, be a work of permanent value to the Church, and may fairly be expected to take its place as a standard work in Anglican Apologetics."

From the Bishop of Goulburn.

"The method adopted of examining the Papal Bull, sentence by sentence, gives the work its particular form, and no doubt the end which the author had in view is by this means most successfully carried out—that end being the complete exposure of the historical misstatements and the theological fallacies of that pretentious document.

"The whole Anglican Communion, therefore, has reason to thank God for the accumulated learning and marked ability which has so ably vindicated the historical and spiritual validity of its Sacred Orders; and I earnestly pray that the work as a whole may be widely studied, and may serve more and more, as time goes on for the confirmation of faith, the settlement of doubts, and the convincement of gainsayers."

From the Bishop of Newcastle, New South Wales.

"The work is well worthy of its character as a 'Vindication.' Its historical and liturgical matter gives a solid basis and cannot be shaken. The tone is scholarly and calm, and the whole work will stand as standard literature on the subject it discusses."

From Bishop Nicolai, Chief of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission in Japan.

"After perusing the work, I found it the best on the subject among the others, and fully appreciate the weight of all arguments in it against the pretensions of the Roman Church."

From the Bishop of Gibraltar.

"It will be recognized as the Standard Authority on the subject with which it deals."

PRECEDING PAGES

From the Bishop of Pittsburgh.

"As an American, one can only render thanks to God that so much learning and skill has been manifested by priests on this side of the water in the production of an argument which will surely command the attention and elicit the commendation of Churchmen the world over."

From the Bishop of Rochester.

"It was a happy thought on the part of American Churchmen to draw us all together in the matter, and certainly we of the older Church gratefully welcome such a reinforcement from the younger."

From the Bishop of Bangor.

"A clear presentation of the Anglican position in regard to Holy Orders. It will take its place as a standard book in showing the hollowness of Roman claims and pretensions, and the rightful claims of our Church to be considered a branch of the Catholic Church of Christ."

From the Bishop of Marquette.

"I know of no work which contains an equally rich treasure of information on the whole subject of Holy Orders, as Dr. Lowndes' masterly 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.'"

From the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe.

"Learned, comprehensive, and reasonable. A treasury of information."

From the Bishop of Ohio.

"Its spirit is firm but temporate, in view of the aggravations that at times must excite the defender of his Orders. Its scholarship is of course unquestioned. Its conclusions are so plain and so definite and so admirably put, that, 'the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err' in grasping them."

From the Bishop of Wellington.

"Of great value, and the greater because it is written independently, and confirms in a remarkable degree the conclusions at which other writers have arrived, besides presenting new facts of great importance."

By LEWIS STOCKTON, Counsellor at Law

CLOTH, PRICE $2.00. Postage prepaid when payment accompanies order.

Containing a chapter on "Marriage Canonically Considered" by Rev. Francis J. Hall, D.D., Index, Bibliography and Suggested Legislation.

Resolution of the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Washington, adopted May, 9, 1912:

"WHEREAS, An attempt is now being made by the Church of Rome to enforce in the United States the "Ne Temere" decree of the Pope, whereby mixed marriages, solemnized by Protestant ministers, are declared to be null and void, * * * therefore,

"RESOLVED, That we enter our indignant protest against this attack of a foreign potentate upon the validity of the laws of the United States."

EXTRACT FROM AUTHOR'S PREFACE: "Marriage is a matter of universal concern. The claims of the Church of Rome as affecting national and state authority and personal rights in the United States are vital to be understood."

"I have read the book through with great interest and have no doubt about its usefulness. In particular the publication of the full text of the ne temere decree and the judgment of the Superior Court of the Province of Quebec is extremely valuable."—RT. REV. A. C. A. HALL, Bishop of Vermont.

"TRAVEL PICTURES"

By "PRESBYTER IGNOTUS"

(The Rev. William Harman van Allen,
Rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston)

"GREETING, MIJNHEER"
[From TRAVEL PICTURES.]

ONE of the handsomest gift books of the season. DR. VAN ALLEN has long written over the signature of "Presbyter Ignotus," the vivacious "Blue Monday Musings" that regularly brighten the pages of The Living Church. Twice in recent years these papers have been suspended in order to make place for the "Travel Pictures" by the same writer, in which the author's vacation wanderings through little known portions of northern Europe —particularly in Holland and Germany—and through England have been most charmingly related and illustrated. Few books of travel are so sparklingly delightful as this; few have been issued by their publishers in so sumptuous a manner. The volume may, with confidence, be ordered for use as a Christmas gift, and may well adorn the library of every lover of fine books.

Life of Bishop Gilbert

MAHLON NORRIS GILBERT
Bishop Coadjutor of Minnesota, 1886-1900

By Francis Leseure Palmer, Professor in Seabury Divinity School. With Introduction by Daniel Sylvester Tuttle, Presiding Bishop of the American Church.

Cloth, with Photogravure Portrait and other illustrations.
Price $1.50; by mail $1.65.

It will be a great pleasure to many American Churchmen to receive this biography of one who made so profound an impress upon his fellow Churchmen. It is written by one who had formed a great admiration for him, while Bishop Tuttle's appreciative Introduction well sets forth the saintly qualities which adorned the subject.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

A Dictionary of English Church History

Edited by S. L. OLLARD, M.A., Vice-Principal and Tutor of S. Edmund Hall, Oxford, Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Worcester, and Hon. Canon of Worcester. Assisted by GORDON CROSSE, M.A., of New College, Oxford, and Lincoln's Inn, and by nearly seventy Contributors. Super Royal 8vo, about 700 pages, with two colored maps. Cloth, $5.00; by mail $5.50. India Paper edition, half leather, $8.40; by mail $8.60.

If any apology be needed for the publication of a Dictionary of English Church History, it is to be found in the fact that no work of the kind exists in English or in German. Never before, probably, have English historians been so numerous and so active as in the last thirty years, but the results of their researches are still chiefly contained in biographies, in series, and in isolated monographs. The object of this Dictionary is to embody a synthesis of these results so far as it can be obtained.

The scope of the book is strictly that of the English Church, that is to say, the Provinces of Canterbury and York, and no attempt has been made to treat of the Church in America or abroad.

A Bishop Amongst Bananas

By BISHOP BURY, formerly of British Honduras. Large 8vo cloth, illustrated, $2.00; by mail $2.15.

This is a careful portraiture of conditions in the republics of Central America as they are to-day—social, political, and ecclesiastical; while as a descriptive work it is of remarkable interest.

SAYS THEODORE ROOSEVELT:

"I took a very keen interest in your experiences in that unique diocese of yours, and I am glad that we are to have not only an account of these experiences, but a knowledge of your ideas as to what is the right type of work to be done under such strange conditions. . . . As an American, I feel a very real sense of gratitude to you, because we Americans are more deeply concerned in Central American problems and affairs than the people of any other country, even your own."

A History of Great Britain

From the Coming of the Angles to the Year 1870. By E. M. WILMOT BUXTON. Cloth $1.25; by mail $1.35.

A history for the school or the home, which is free from the annoying errors relating to the history of the Church that mar so many popular histories.

"In every way satisfactory. It treats of history by periods and topics—not by reigns—and does it admirably. . . . Mr. Buxton's treatment of such a matter as the American Revolution could not be improved upon, even by our own writers.—The Living Church.

The Church Triumphant

By the Rev. L. A. Davison. Cloth, $1.00; by mail $1.08.

This is a quite unique study of the Church and its functions through what may be termed the Eschatology of the Bible, both Old and New Testaments. It is divided into three sections entitled, respectively, The Creation, The Church Militant, The Triumph. In his Preface the author treats of what appears to be involved in the doctrine of the Inspiration of Holy Scripture, both in the manner of the divine illumination of the writers and of the implications of its teaching, and then continues, as to the immediate purpose of his book:

"Still, my direct object was not an argument for any particular theory of the inspiration of Holy Scripture, but, rather for a better comprehension of what Jesus taught concerning His Church. I am sure that the more we understand its nature, its present mission, and its ultimate purpose, the more effective work we will be able to do as a Church. But, more than this, such a knowledge will give that hope and inspiration and incentive for overcoming, which the apostles so earnestly sought to instil, and of which we are so much in need. When a man comes to realize that there is something besides golden harps and crowns, and eternal idleness with constant singing, invariably his devotion and love and sanctification are deepened. Harps and crowns and song are but symbolic of things infinitely more worth while, though numbers of people seem to think they have no ulterior meaning."

NEW BOOK FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

The Elements of Child Study and Religious Pedagogy

In Simple and Practical Form. Fully Illustrated. By the Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, A.M., M.D., Secretary of the New York Sunday School Commission, Sunday School Field Secretary for the Second Department. With Foreword by the Rev. Robert P. Kreitler. Cloth, 90 cts.; by mail $1.00.

This new work is commended to all who occupy responsible positions in Sunday Schools—superintendents, teachers, and officers. The book is divided into five parts, entitled, respectively, The Child-Study, or the Process of Mind Growth; The Curriculum; The Lesson and its Preparation; The Class; The Scope and Aim of Religious Instruction.

Through his untiring work on behalf of Sunday Schools, as well as through his previous books—"Sunday School Teaching," "Religious Education," etc.—Dr. Smith has become a recognized authority in this important phase of parochial work. His new book will thus be gladly welcomed.

Some weeks ago a writer in The Living Church directed attention to the desirability of posting the English Table of Forbidden Degrees in our Church Vestibules. Inquiry developed the fact that no edition convenient for the purpose was made, and The Young Churchman Co. has therefore published the Table on heavy cardboard as described above. It may either be framed and hung in the Church porch, or tacked upon a notice board. The value of keeping this precautionary Table before the eyes of the people is obvious.

HOLY WEDLOCK

A Book with Marriage Service and Certificate

"HOLY WEDLOCK," is the title of our booklet containing the Marriage Service. It contains:

First. The Marriage Service from the Prayer Book rubricated, and the letter-press in a black text letter, old Missal style, very plain and yet the most attractive setting possible for the service.

Second. A Marriage Certificate, printed in Gold, Red, and Black.

Third. A blank page handsomely decorated, entitled "Bridal Party."

This page is intended for all the signatures of the Bridal Party.

Fourth. Five pages for "Congratulations of Guests," also ornamented in gold and colors. For signatures of friends present at the wedding.

Fifth. Four other pages exquisitely illuminated in gold and colors with appropriate selections.

This is the most beautiful book of its kind that has been prepared. The size is 5½ x 7 inches, gold lines around the pages. It will make the handsomest souvenir of the wedding that can be procured. Bound in three styles of covers:

No. 1—HOLY WEDLOCK, heavy parchment cover, in envelope. Net, 50 cents.

No. 2—HOLY WEDLOCK, bound in white leatherette, title of book in gold, boxed. Net, 75 cents.

No. 3—HOLY WEDLOCK, white kid leather. $2.50.

Every bride will want one as a souvenir of her wedding day.

New Announcement Concerning
The Young Churchman

[See Next Page.]

New Announcement Concerning
The Young Churchman

A new step has been taken by THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN. Hereafter the first issue in every month is a special Missionary Magazine, and for its monthly readers, all issues will hereafter thus be designated.

These Missionary Magazines are edited by the Editors of the Spirit of Missions, and will thus be under the direct inspiration of the missionary movement of the American Church. As they have made the Spirit of Missions a household necessity for "grown-ups" in every intelligent Church family, so now, by editing and supervising this MISSIONARY MAGAZINE OF THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN, they will, month by month, bring the young people of the Church into touch with God's work throughout the world.

The MISSIONARY MAGAZINE may thus be obtained separately, once a month, or in connection with the regular weekly issues of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN as follows:

WEEKLY EDITION

INCLUDING THE "MISSIONARY MAGAZINE" AS THE FIRST ISSUE IN EACH MONTH

Single subscriptions, 80 cts. per year. In quantities of ten or more to one address, 60 cts. per copy per year, with a special discount of 10 per cent. on subscriptions paid for a full year in advance.

MONTHLY EDITION

THE "MISSIONARY MAGAZINE" ONLY

Single subscriptions, 25 cts. per year. In quantities of ten or more to one address, 20 cts. per copy per year, with a special discount of 10 per cent. on subscriptions paid for a full year in advance.

In this monthly MISSIONARY number appears also a special missionary lesson, edited by the Rev. William E. Gardner, who has for two years been preparing the successful lessons in the Spirit of Missions. In other weekly issues of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN will be found, as heretofore, a lesson in the Joint Diocesan course, prepared by the Rev. Professor Lofstrom, so that every school using THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN lessons will have a missionary lesson once a month.

Teachers should also be supplied with the Spirit of Missions. For this purpose a club rate for the Spirit of Missions is made by the Board of Missions (in quantities of 5 or more) for Sunday School teachers of 50 cents a year, the regular subscription price being $1.00. A single subscription to THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN (weekly) and the Spirit of Missions (monthly) will cost $1.70 per year; or to the Missionary Magazine of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN (monthly) with the Spirit of Missions, $1.15. Thus it is hoped that each of the two magazines will supplement the other.

And we suggest also the importance of teachers and other Sunday School workers fitting themselves for that work in a broad, comprehensive, and not merely technical manner. For that purpose we strongly recommend The Living Church, our weekly periodical for adults, in which the news and thought of the Church are presented, week by week, in interesting manner. The subscription price is $2.50 per year, and clubs for Sunday School teachers, consisting of five or more subscriptions, are entered at the rate of $2.00 each per year. Thus, in clubs of 5 or more the teachers and workers may obtain both The Living Church and the Spirit of Missions for the price of the former alone—$2.50 per year. Surely this annual investment for the sake of broadening the vision of the Sunday school teacher is one that every teacher will be ready to make.

The Southern Churchman

A FAMILY CHURCH PAPER

Published by the Southern Churchman Co., Richmond, Va.

Two Dollars a Year

To Clergymen, One Dollar a Year

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN is the oldest Church paper in the United States, having been published continuously for seventy-eight years under the name it now bears.

It gives all the important news of the Church at large and of the various Dioceses.

Its Family and Children's Departments are filled with bright, entertaining, and instructive reading matter, making it a welcome visitor to old and young in the household.

ITS MOTTO:

"Catholic for Every Truth of God; Protestant Against Every Error of Man"

It is courteous and fair in its statements and criticisms; conservative in its principles, not recognizing any faction in the Church, but gladly conceding the sincerity of those whose views of Church administration differ from its own, holding them as brethren in the Lord and of the same Household of Faith.

Its Churchmanship is that of the Prayer Book, as interpreted by the use of the American Church.

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN will be glad to receive and publish news of Church work from any part of the country.

Illuminated board cover, 50 cents net; by mail 58 cents.
Illuminated cloth, 75 cents net; by mail 83 cents.
Cloth gilt, $1.00 net; by mail $1.08.
Just Issued.

The History is short, clear, impartial, and accurate. It gives to the early as well as the later ages their proper proportion in relation to the whole. The book is published at a very low price, so that it can be circulated profusely where the simple history of the English Church will be read. It is also very useful indeed for Church History classes.

The Pennoyer Sanitarium

1. Has been in successful operation for more than fifty years. Open all the year.

2. Has frequent railway and electric train service to Kenosha. Is very accessible to Chicago, Milwaukee, and vicinity.

3. Has unexcelled environment in a most healthful climate. Summers cool and winters mild.

4. Has modern improvements—hydraulic elevator, hot-water heating, sanitary plumbing, pure water, spacious protected verandas, sun parlor.

5. Has fine baths, swimming pool, electric light and electro-thermal baths, electric and vibratory appliances, etc.

6. Has a recreation room—pool table, shuffleboard.

7. Has a laboratory for blood examinations, urinalysis, examination of stomach contents, etc.

8. Has an excellent cuisine, avoiding food fads and extremes in dietary.

8. Has country quiet, with grounds embracing 100 acres, beautifully landscaped, fronting Lake Michigan, in the outskirts of Kenosha.

10. Has home-like comforts, the atmosphere of a family-life, the safety of good nursing under experienced medical supervision.

11. Has the prestige of fifty years' experience in health-culture, under sane, hygienic and conservative psychological conditions.

The Pennoyer Sanitarium extends an invitation to those seeking rest or recreation to share its comforts and its benefits. For full information, or illustrated prospectus, address the managers:

Editorial.

Another year has passed, with the usual quota of work done in and by the Church. In detail much of the external side of that work is reported within these covers, partly in the Cyclopedia section and partly in the Tables of Statistics. The portraits of Bishops consecrated during the year just past are only three, but that is because the pictures of two Missionary Bishops-elect, consecrated early in the present year, were included in the volume for 1912. There were thus five consecrations to the episcopate during the year and there are also three Bishops Coadjutor-elect awaiting confirmation as the year draws to a close. Three Bishops have passed to their rest, during the year from November 1, 1911, to November 1, 1912, only one of them dying during the kalendar year of 1912. The Clerical Necrology, other than that of Bishops, is of substantially normal length, numbering 103 names as compared with 105 last year—a curious illustration of the inexorable law of average, which demands relentlessly that about two priests or deacons should pass to their rest every week. The depositions number 20, rather more than the average, and there are, as always, some losses through removals from the American Church to foreign dioceses. In spite of these losses we have the really remarkable net increase of 72 clergy, though in reporting a net gain of 63 last year we felt that a record had been established that would probably not immediately be surpassed. This gain, however, is only about one to each 78 of the clergy, and the number of candidates for orders reported is 4 less than last year. No attention need be paid to the fluctuation in postulants and lay readers, for these are often not reported—though we cannot think why they should not be—and there is probably at least no real loss in lay readers. The gain in communicants is 22,924, being about 2½ per cent. This is a greater gain than that recorded last year, but only about the average. Again there is a loss in total baptisms, after that so frequent loss in past years had been stayed. Our spiritual birth rate, like the natural birth rate, bears a continually smaller and smaller ratio to the number of communicants. As there is nearly always a gain in confirmed, and always in communicants, it will be seen that for many years our gain in the Church has been by accretions from outside rather than by the normal method of infant baptism. We have discussed this so frequently in past years as to make it unnecessary to do so again; but it is a constant menace to the growth of the Church. In 1892 there were recorded 61,612 baptisms, being one to a fraction of over nine communicants; in 1912, twenty years later, the baptisms are 67,527, being one to about 14½ communicants.

When we take up the Table of Statistics in detail, we are perplexed, as so often in previous years we have been perplexed, by the considerable number of dioceses that show a decrease in communicants, and the ever recurring question whether the Church is in fact losing ground in any part of the country even though there invariably remains a net increase for the whole Church. Where there is a discrepancy between statistics reported under the diocesan head and those for the same diocese in the general Table of Statistics, the latter are to be esteemed as corrective of the former. Under the diocesan head the statistics are, with rare exceptions, those that are officially reported. At times these are found very defective, but we judge that the diocese must in such cases assume its own responsibility for defective statistics, and thus there is sometimes shown in the diocesan pages a decrease in communicants that is changed in the general tables to an increase. In such cases the explanation is that the compilers of the statistics for the LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL make every effort to go back of the official figures and discover whether there are material omissions through failures to report, and if so, to correct those omissions.

Beyond that, we never allow a decrease of communicants to appear in the Table of Statistics without presenting the matter to the diocesan authorities with the request for correction if necessary, or for explanation if that be possible. Thus we are now enabled, as in previous years, to make explanation concerning some of the instances in which dioceses appear with a decrease instead of an increase in communicants as shown in the tables.

Central New York shows the considerable loss of 419, being 2 per cent. on the communicant list. It is explained to us, as so frequently the explanation has been given to us from other dioceses, that this is due to revision of communicant lists by incoming rectors, the number of confirmed being larger than usual, and thus the loss being that which comes from disappearances of communicants rather than from other causes. The decrease in the diocese of Pittsburgh is due to the same cause, one parish roll of communicants having been cut from 988 to 400; so that the net loss of 18 in the whole diocese, as compared with the erasure of 588 names in one parish, does not need further explanation.

There are also losses in some of the southern dioceses. In Georgia it is stated that 228 names have been dropped from the register of one parish, and the practice of retaining names upon the register after they no longer designate active communicants is being changed. In Louisiana the decrease is due to the fact that the parochial reports are this year closed on March 1st, nearly two months before they had been closed in other years, with the result that the period of greatest confirmations, March and April, is omitted from the year's statistics altogether, leaving, for the most part, the losses to be recorded without the corresponding gains. Mississippi shows the most serious ratio of loss that is recorded, being 9 per cent. This is attributed to the ravages of the boll-wevil, which has caused utter destruction in those counties in which the Church has hitherto been strongest. "Many of our people in the rural districts," writes the Bishop, "have been forced to go elsewhere to make a living, and some in the towns, dependent upon country life, have been forced to do likewise. With their homes broken up, they have gone in large numbers to Oklahoma and elsewhere. Many are remaining and fighting the conditions of poverty with more or less success. The growth in some of our parishes has been very marked. When this is taken into consideration the loss is even greater than the figures indicate." That such removals from one section to another involve always some considerable loss to the Church, is shown in the fact that the gains in the two missionary districts in Oklahoma, though considerable, are not sufficient to counterbalance the loss in Mississippi. The problem of following removing communicants from place to place is, next to that of the falling baptismal rate, the greatest problem, perhaps, that the Church has to face.

In the diocese of Lexington the information is given that the apparent loss recorded in the official statistics has been carefully reconsidered by the diocesan authorities, who are convinced that it is due only to pruning of the lists and perhaps to errors and carelessness in making reports. They believe that there has been no real decrease; but not being able to point out precisely where the errors have been made, the compilers of the LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL are obviously obliged to take the figures as reported, thus showing a decrease.

Coming now to the dioceses of the Middle West, we are confronted with the condition that in the rural counties throughout this section the population is often decreasing and the number of English-speaking residents is still further decreasing, their places being in considerable part taken by an influx of foreigners. The condition thus presented is a most serious one, and one hardly knows what will be the outcome. Our parishes and missions in many places, outside the larger cities, are being depopulated. Apart from that, the Bishop of Springfield believes that the loss in his diocese is partly to be accounted for by the fact that money is now being raised in the diocese by a per capita assessment against communicants, which leads to severe pruning of parochial lists. He believes that the number of actual working Churchmen is greater than at any time heretofore. In Marquette there has been an exceptional number of removals, especially from the larger parishes, while estimates of small vacant missions have been reduced. Minnesota, Duluth, and Iowa, each of which records some decrease, all suffer from the general condition already mentioned. The Bishop of Minnesota believes that the losses in the smaller country towns, however, are largely offset by the gains in the cities, so that the total net loss of six for his diocese is negligible. In Duluth and in Iowa, both of which are destitute of large cities, the condition has produced more serious results and the loss is more considerable. Iowa, which showed a decrease of population in the last census, probably continues to lose its older citizenship, and in one or two of the largest parishes there have also been the usual difficulties resulting from the pruning of lists by incoming rectors. On the whole, in spite of difficulties, the Church in the Middle West continues to make good progress even numerically, unless it be in the north Ohio valley.

Further to the westward, North Dakota shows a decrease, which is explained by reason of unusual emigration to Canada and the Pacific slope, and also to the fact that merely nominal communicants are being rapidly cut off from parochial records. A small decrease in Western Colorado is explained by discrepancies in reports of isolated communicants at a distance from organized parishes and missions.

AND SO WE HAVE GONE through the list, explaining where explanation is possible, but leaving one or two serious conditions that must undoubtedly press for attention upon the Church.

The problem of missions in small places in the Middle West and in some parts of the South, where a few loyal communicants remain, but larger numbers have moved on, is one that gives serious perplexity to the diocesan authorities in these sections. To minister to these scattered sheep of the fold involves a drain upon the diocesan missionary treasuries that can ill be afforded, and in many cases there seems little opportunity to build up permanent work on a self-supporting basis. The problem is one that has not been solved, if indeed it be not insolvable. The drift from the country to the cities, and from the Middle West to the Farther West, is producing a social revolution throughout the rural sections, and the Church is in a difficult condition because of it. All that can be said is that its authorities are alive to the seriousness of the condition, and that the losses, when there are such, are due to conditions over which the Church has no control. In those Middle Western dioceses that have large cities the rural loss is generally more than made up by the gains in the cities, though, on the other hand, there are frequently shown instances in which larger Confirmation classes are presented from small places than from the larger city parishes. Thus the seed is sown, even though the subsequent migration plays the greatest havoc with the statistics. And, as we have shown, in most of these dioceses there is a fair numerical increase in spite of the difficulties, and in three of them—Chicago, Western Michigan, and Quincy—the net ratio of gain in communicants is in excess of that in the country as a whole.

Another factor that plays a large part in holding back our statistics of growth is the increasing stress that has been laid in recent years upon apportionments and assessments as compared with tables of communicants. These parochial records are not primarily intended as tables of assets. They were formerly understood as lists of names of persons requiring and entitled to pastoral ministrations, including, generally, considerable numbers who are financial liabilities rather than assets of the Church. No diocese and no parish is pleased to be heralded before the world as remiss in pro rata contributions, and the result is that the tendency to cut down statistics to the barest minimum, which has spread over the entire country, plays a very considerable part in holding back the figures showing the apparent growth of the Church. We are annually cutting off the names of thousands of communicants, who have sometime been active parishioners, because parishes feel that they cannot afford to bear the onus of continuing to record names of those who bear no part of the financial burden. Thus they are lost to the records of the Church, in large numbers. That we still continue to show net growth rather than decrease at the end of every year in spite of this rigid pruning of communicant rolls, proves that the gains are real and that the Church is in fact making good progress in this country.

In the foreign missions there are actually reported a smaller number of communicants than there were a year ago, due to the fact that Mexico shows the great decrease of 849, or a loss of 43 per cent. This is accounted for by the fact that the communicants of the Church in that republic have very largely been Americans, and the condition of war, with all that attends it, has resulted in the removal of most of these Americans. Similarly the devastation of Hankow in the Chinese war clearly enough accounts for the small decrease in communicants in that district and for the still smaller decrease in the adjoining district of Wuhu. It is impossible that there should be statistical growth under such conditions as have prevailed in central China during the past two years, although never before, perhaps, have our missions in that country shown so well their ability to rise to an emergency that was thrust upon them, as they have done in this instance.

Once more we remind Churchmen that the statistics of the Church ought to be studied with sympathy for those who are confronted with serious problems; and that statistical increase or decrease affords no clue whatever to the relative efficiency of work in the several fields.

CORRECTIONS OF THE "ANNUAL" OF 1912.

In last year's ANNUAL there was printed (p. 51) a Comparative Table showing the Ratio of Communicants to Total Population in a list of American cities of 65,000 population and over. The list itself, though taken from an official publication of the United States Government, proved far from complete. Two errors in the statistics relating to the Church, as printed in that table and as summarized in the editorial, were subsequently pointed out, as follows:

The first is that in counting 5,527 communicants in the city of Richmond, Va., our figures included only those within the diocese of Virginia, recorded in the ANNUAL as in Henrico County; whereas, as the Southern Churchman pointed out, Richmond is, in fact, partly in the diocese of Virginia and partly in that of Southern Virginia, so that the communicants of Manchester parish, Chesterfield County, in the latter diocese, should also be counted as of Richmond. As 251 communicants are accredited to the latter, the total for the city should be 5,778. In Richmond, then, the ratio of communicants to population is 1 in 22 instead of 1 in 23, as printed.

The second error is that by a misprint or mathematical miscalculation, the ratio of communicants to population in Troy, N. Y., should be stated as 1 in 25 instead of 1 in 22, as printed. Unhappily, that takes Troy out of the list of cities in which the Church has gained more rapidly than the population, for the ratio of 1 in 23 was reported on the basis of the population for 1900.

Correcting these figures, then, we should also correct the editorial statement as to the order of cities according to relative strength of the Church as compared with the population (page 11) as follows: Washington, first; Richmond, second; New Haven, third; Troy, fourth.

We always esteem it a favor for corrections to be pointed out; for the ANNUAL, being compiled, of necessity, very hastily, can never be wholly free from mistakes. We suggest that those who are accustomed to preserve the ANNUAL permanently should make this correction at pages 52-53 of the volume for 1912.

Notes on the Kalendar

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1913

The Lectionary in the accompanying tables is that set forth by the General Convention of 1910 for trial use. It includes, for the first time, special lessons for the eves of festivals, in addition to the tables for Sundays, for festivals and fasts, and for Lent, Ember, and Rogation days. The new "Table of Proper Lessons for Special Occasions" will be found immediately after the Kalendar pages.

The tables printed in the Book of Common Prayer, which were followed in previous years in this publication, continue to be lawful for use.

The references in parentheses in the Lectionary on certain days, designate the following notes:

1.—Circumcision. Proper Psalms: Morning, 40, 90; Evening, 65, 103. For a service "for the beginning of the year" there are authorized as the lessons in the new "Table of Proper Lessons for Special Occasions," Ecclesiastes 11 to v. 9 and 2 Peter 3 v. 8.

2.—The Epiphany. Proper Psalms: Morning, 46, 47, 48; Evening, 72, 117, 135.

3.—Purification. Proper Psalms: Morning, 20, 86, 87; Evening, 84, 113, 134.

4.—Ash Wednesday. Proper Psalms: Morning, 6, 32, 38; Evening, 102, 130, 143.

5.—Good Friday. Proper Psalms: Morning, 22, 40, 54; Evening, 69, 88.

6.—Easter Even. Proper Psalms: Morning, 4, 16, 17; Evening, 30, 31.

7.—Easter Day. Proper Preface to be used. Proper Psalms: Morning, 2, 57, 111; Evening, 113, 114, 118.

8.—Annunciation B. V. M., falling on Tuesday in Easter Week, may be transferred to next day. If observed, Proper Psalms will be: Morning, 89; Evening, 131, 132, 138. Lessons: Morning, Genesis 3 to v. 16, Luke 1 v. 39 to 57; Evening, 1 Sam. 2 to v. 11, John 1 to v. 19.

9.—Ascension Day. Proper Preface. Proper Psalms: Morning, 8, 15, 21; Evening, 24, 47, 108.

10.—Whitsunday. Proper Preface. Proper Psalms: Morning, 48, 68; Evening, 104, 145.

11.—Trinity Sunday. Proper Preface to be read on this day only. Proper Psalms: Morning, 29, 33; Evening, 93, 97, 150.

12.—Fourth of July. Special lessons for "National and State Festivals" are Deuteronomy 33 and Matt. 22 v. 15 to 23.

13.—Transfiguration. Proper Psalms: Morning, 27, 61, 93; Evening, 84, 99, 133.

14.—S. Michael's. Proper Psalms: Morning, 91, 103; Evening, 34, 148.

15.—All Saints' Day. Proper Psalms: Morning, 1, 15, 146; Evening, 112, 121, 149.

16.—Thangskiving Day, according to precedent, if so designated by the civil authority. Color, white. Special Service in Prayer Book, page 319. Psalter discretionary. The 4th and 5th Selections are appropriate. First Lesson, Deut. 8. Second Lesson, I. Thess. 5, v. 12 to 24.

17.—Eve of Advent Sunday is also eve of S. Andrew's Day. If the latter be observed, the eve lessons to be used will be Genesis 12 to v. 10 and 1 Cor. 4 to v. 16.

18.—First Sunday in Advent. Proper Psalms: Morning, 8, 50; Evening, 96, 97. If a service of S. Andrew's Day be used, lessons are: Morning, Zech. 6, John 1, v. 29 to 43; Evening, Isaiah 55, John 12 v. 20 to 42.

19.—Christmas Day. Proper Psalms: Morning, 19, 45, 85; Evening, 89, 110, 132. Use Proper Preface until and including the Circumcision.

Ratio of Communicants

TO THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES SINCE 1830.

	Population.	Communicants.	Ratio.
1830	12,867,000	30,939	1-416
1840	17,069,500	55,427	1-308
1850	23,347,884	79,987	1-292
1860	31,442,960	146,600	1-214
1870	38,555,983	220,000	1-175
1880	50,152,866	344,789	1-151
1890	62,480,540	509,149	1-123
1900	76,295,220	714,575	1-107
1906 (U. S. Census estimate)	84,246,252	886,942*	1-95
1910	92,284,139	928,780	1-99

* In order that comparisons may be based upon uniform data, it should be observed that the number of communicants reported by the LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL of 1907 (figures for 1906) was 837,073, so that for purposes of comparison the ratio of communicants to population in that year should be placed at 1-100. Thus it may be deduced that the actual number of communicants is from five to six per cent greater than that reported in the ANNUAL for any year, and the ratio correspondingly more favorable. This will also indicate that there has been no backward movement in the ratio between 1906 and 1910.

AMERICAN CHURCH UNION

During the past year this organization has continued its work of publishing and distributing through the mails tracts on subjects connected with present movements in the Church. The Union has taken a definite stand in favor of the change of name, having adopted at the annual meeting of 1911 the following: "Resolved that it is the sense of this meeting that the name of the Church should be changed, the new name to include the word "Catholic." The Union has recently issued in pamphlet form a reprint of the discussion on this subject which appeared in THE LIVING CHURCH, between the Bishops of West Virginia, Fond du Lac, and Marquette, Rev. J. C. McKim, the editor of THE LIVING CHURCH, and Mr. George E. Anderson. The annual meeting of 1912 will be held in New York, October 29th.

ARBITRATION

The following action on the subject of Arbitration and Peace was taken by the House of Bishops at its special session in October, 1911:

"The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church assembled in New York, October 27, 1911, express the hope that the principle of arbitration as advocated by the President of the United States will be approved and adopted by the United States Senate through the ratification treaties between the United States and Great Britain, France, and other powers."

Resolutions on the same subject were adopted by the New York diocesan convention in November, 1911, as follows:

"WHEREAS, There are now before the Senate of the United States awaiting ratification certain treaties of arbitration negotiated between the State Department of this country and the governments of Great Britain and France; and,

"WHEREAS, These treaties give clearer expression to the principle of arbitration as the true method of settling international disputes than any other which have been concluded between the leading European nations; and,

"WHEREAS, Every measure for the promotion of peace with righteousness is of vital concern to the Christian Church;

"Resolved, First, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York records its hearty approval of the action of the President of the United States in the negotiation of these treaties and expresses the hope that they may speedily be ratified by the Senate.

"Second, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the President of the United States and to the Senators from the State of New York.

"Third, That the Convention suggests that on the Sunday next before Advent, November 26th, special prayers be offered and reference made to this subject in the churches of the diocese."

BETHLEHEM, DIOCESE OF

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D.D., LL.D., was held in connection with the diocesan council in May. Bishop Talbot was consecrated to be Bishop of Wyoming and Idaho in 1887 and was translated to Central Pennsylvania, now the diocese of Bethlehem, in 1898. Gathered with the clergy and laity of the diocese to do him honor, were the Rt. Rev. John Scarborough, D.D., Bishop of New Jersey; the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts; the Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington, D.D., Bishop of Harrisburg; the Rt. Rev. Frederick Joseph Kinsman, D.D., Bishop of Delaware; the Rt. Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander, D.D., Bishop of Pennsylvania; and the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, Bishop Suffragan of Pennsylvania. A movement is now under way to celebrate the anniversary by increasing the diocesan endowment to $50,000 and the salary of the Bishop was raised from $4,500 and $500 for traveling expenses to $5,000 and $1,000 for traveling expenses.

BILLER, GEORGE, JR.,

third Bishop of South Dakota, was born in London, England, February 25, 1874. He received his early education in St. Austin's School, New York, and in England. In 1898 he was graduated from Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn. With him in that school were Bishop F. F. Johnson, his predecessor in the bishopric of South Dakota, now Bishop Coadjutor of Missouri, Bishop Paddock of Eastern Oregon, and the Rev. P. M. Kerridge, who afterwards served as one of his attending presbyters. He was ordained deacon in 1898 by Bishop Starkey of Newark, whose successor in office, Bishop Lines, presented him for consecration to the episcopate; and to the priesthood by Bishop Brooke in the same year, who afterwards preached the consecration sermon. Mr. Biller spent five years in missionary work in the Indian Territory (now Eastern Oklahoma) under Bishop Brooke, after which, in 1903, he became vicar of the Chapel of the Incarnation, New York City, under Dean Grosvenor, now Dean of the New York Cathedral. From New York Mr. Biller went to Sioux Falls as vicar of Calvary parish in 1908, and in the following year was appointed by Bishop Hare to be Dean of the Cathedral. At the time of his election to the episcopate he was also Registrar of the Missionary District and an Examining Chaplain. He was elected Missionary Bishop of South Dakota by the House of Bishops at the special session of April, 1912, and was consecrated in his Cathedral at Sioux Falls on Wednesday, September 18th, by the venerable Presiding Bishop, with the Bishops of Montana and North Dakota as assistant consecrators, the Bishop of Oklahoma as preacher, and the Bishop of Newark and the Bishop Coadjutor of Missouri as presenters. Others who joined in the laying on of hands were the Bishops of Minnesota, Kearney, and Wyoming The Bishop-elect was attended by the Rev. Philip M. Kerridge, rector of St. James' Church, New London, Conn., and the Rev. Frank R. Jones, chaplain of Contagious Diseases Hospitals, New York City, as attending presbyters. The former of these was a class-mate and "chum," and the latter the brother-in-law of the newly consecrated Bishop. The Rev. Dr. Edward Ashley officiated as master of ceremonies, with the Rev. F. B. Barnett as his assistant.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW IN THE UNITED STATES

The National Council of the Brotherhood reported to the twenty-seventh annual Convention recently held in Chicago a successful year's work on the part of the organization. There are at the present time in good standing 912 Senior Chapters in full union with the national body and 543 Junior Chapters. There are also 77 probationary Senior Chapters and 48 probationary Junior Chapters, making a total of Chapters working at the present of 1,580. There are in the United States 41 State and Diocesan Assemblies and 44 City Assemblies. At the last fourteen annual Conventions there have been an average registration of nearly one thousand delegates.

The membership of the Brotherhood is about 15,000, and the organization maintains four field secretaries, one each for the New England States, the New York Metropolitan District, the Southern States, and the Far West. Not counting probationary Chapters organized and now awaiting charter, the total number of new Chapters formed last year receiving charters and coming into full union with the organization was 115.

An important part of the Brotherhood's work is what is known as its Follow-Up Department. This is a bureau through which rectors and parents follow up young men who move to new places for business employment or to enter college or boarding schools. In the seven years during which the Brotherhood has conducted this department there have been received 2,875 reports with information that no fewer than 1,606 young men have, through this agency, been definitely connected with the Church in their new homes.

The recent National Convention in Chicago brought together 900 delegates from all parts of the United States. Other meetings of importance during the year were the New England Convention, at which 300 delegates were present; the Connecticut State Convention, the Tri-Diocesan Convention at Washington, and the New York State Convention at Albany. The largest district conference was that at New York on Washington's Birthday, when 1,100 Brotherhood men gathered in the Synod House and Cathedral.

The twenty-eighth National Convention of the Brotherhood will assemble in New York City, October 1 to 5, 1913, just prior to the meeting of the General Convention there.

CHICAGO, DIOCESE OF

The diocese of Chicago entered into the election of a Suffragan Bishop at a special convention in October, 1911, as a result of which the Ven. William E. Toll, Archdeacon of the diocese, was elected by the clergy on the first ballot and was immediately confirmed by the laity. On the ballot cast by the clergy there were 80 votes, of which Archdeacon Toll received 53, Dean Sumner 7, and there were scattering votes for nine others. Of the laity there were 48 votes cast, of which 28 were affirmative and 20 negative. The election was then made unanimous and the salary of the Suffragan Bishop was fixed at $3,600. The consecration took place at Grace church, Chicago, on St. John the Evangelist Day, December 27, 1911.

CHINA

Revolution and political unrest have been large factors in the history that has been made so rapidly among the Chinese people during the past year. There was serious fighting in Hankow and the vicinity and the members of the American Church Mission were able to render large assistance in the care of the wounded.

It has become increasingly obvious that the new political ideals in China are the product of Christianity. It has been shown that Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the first provisional President, was educated at the Anglican mission school at Honolulu, and though finally professing Christianity as a Congregationalist, is in a large measure the product of Anglican Church work. One of the chief workers on the tentative constitution for the Republic is the son of a Chinese priest in one of the missions of the Church of England and an M.A. of Yale University. The secretary of the late Board of Foreign Affairs at Peking, editor of the standard Chinese-English dictionary, Dr. W. W. Yen, late of the Chinese Legation at Washington, is a graduate of St. John's University, Shanghai. In fact St. John's men and Boone graduates are centres of influence and leadership, in various parts of China, whose weight on the side of Christianity is invaluable.

There was an interesting incident in January when Provisional President Sun received the gift of a Bible from a group of Chinese Christians, and his private secretary, acknowledging the gift by direction of the President, wrote:

"The President hopes by reading this Holy Book he will derive much benefit and that the Spirit which dictated this work will also help him to guide the destinies of this country wisely."

This new movement is one in which Christianity is legally tolerated and has been a large factor in making the movement possible. At the same time, in remote parts of the land there have been uprisings against Christians and foreigners, and in the diocese of North China, on March 6th, the Rev. Frederick Day of the English S. P. G. Mission was killed by mutinous soldiers. It appears that Mr. Day with another missionary, the Rev. F. S. Hughes, had been dispatched by Bishop Scott to bring letters. They were so unfortunate as to arrive at one of the towns at a time when mutinous soldiers were sacking the town, whereupon they fell upon the missionaries. Mr. Day was killed, and his companion, Mr. Hughes, secured refuge in the town hall and ultimately was released by a detachment of British soldiers.

Famine, too, has played a sad part during the year. Through the summer of 1911 terrific typhoons and floods raged in the Chekiang province especially, causing a total loss of crops and leaving a large population totally destitute. Appeals were made throughout the United States for assistance, and Bishop Graves of Shanghai became chairman of the Chinese Relief Committee.

In April, 1912, the consolidation of the Anglican missions in China was effected by the formation of the General Synod of the "Chunghua Sheng-kung-hui" (Chinese Holy Catholic Church). Eleven Anglo-American Bishops will sit as one of the two houses of the General Synod, while the House of Deputies will be composed of clerical and lay delegates from the English and American missionary dioceses, a majority of whom will probably at all times be Chinese. Following are some of the most important statistics of the consolidated Anglican missions in China:

Total number of Missionaries	611
Chinese Clergy	101
Chinese Lay Catechists	358
Chinese Doctors, men and women	29
Chinese school teachers	659
Total number of Chinese missionaries	1,400
Total number of Chinese at present in training institutions for various departments of missionary work	440
Baptized Christians	28,561
Number of Churches and Mission Stations	842
For the year ending May 31, 1911—
Baptisms	2,872
Confirmations	1,567

The emergency needs in China were so great that the Board of Missions authorized the attempt to raise some $200,000 for a special "New China" fund to be entirely distinct from the ordinary appropriations for Chinese work.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL UNION

The Christian Social Union at its annual meeting in January voted that the Joint Commission on Social Service appointed by the last General Convention made the continuation of their work as an organization unnecessary, and they determined therefore to suspend their work, turning their activities over to the Joint Commission.

CHURCH CONGRESS

The Church Congress held its sessions of 1912 in St. Louis, the opening sermon being preached by the Rt. Rev. N. S. Thomas, D.D., Bishop of Wyoming. Subjects discussed during the Congress were: "Modern Psychic Phenomena and Demonology," "The Possibility of Unity in Church Government," "The Sanctity of Marriage," "Official Censorship in the Interest of Morals," "The Good and Evil in Trade Unions," "Music as an Aid to Religion," and "Conversion as a Christian Experience."

COLORADO, DIOCESE OF

The annual council celebrated, in June, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the diocese and the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Olmsted. With the diocesan clergy there were gathered in honor of the occasion the Bishops of Duluth, Western Colorado, and Wyoming, and festival services were held. At an evening service addresses were given by the Bishop, Dean Hart, and Mr. A. D. Parker. The new Cathedral has been opened and is an architectural credit to the Church.

CONNECTICUT, DIOCESE OF

At the annual convention in June, Bishop Brewster asked for the election of a Bishop Suffragan to assist in the work of the diocese. He reminded the convention that two years previously his recommendation that the diocese be divided had not been granted and he still felt that additional episcopal supervision was necessary. He believed it inexpedient to elect a Bishop Coadjutor but felt that it would be useful to elect a Suffragan Bishop. The convention voted accordingly to proceed to such an election, with the result that the Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley was elected by the clergy on the thirteenth ballot and the election was at once unanimously approved by the lay vote.

In the votes of the clergy, after three ballots divided among ten nominees, the choice seemed to lie between the Rev. George T. Linsley, the Rev. William E. Gardner, and the Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley. The latter then withdrew his name and in a number of ballots following, the division was chiefly between the two other clergymen named, though with enough scattering votes to prevent an election. The Rev. J. Chauncey Linsley again received one vote in the eighth ballot and received on successive ballots 3, 4, 17, 49, and finally, on the thirteenth ballot, 78 votes, the number necessary to elect being 72. The votes in detail were as follows:

Mr. Linsley subsequently declined his election and no further attempt was made during the year to secure a choice for the position.

ENGLAND AND IRELAND, CHURCHES OF

Political issues have been large factors in the thought of English Churchmen during the past year, especially in connection with the proposed disestablishment and partial disendowment of the Church in Wales, the dioceses of which are integral parts of the province of Canterbury and ecclesiastically inseparable from the dioceses of that province. The difficulties connected with the breach between the law of the Church and the law of the State in regard to marriage have also continued to create friction. Beyond this has been the echo of the Irish dispute over home rule, in which Anglican Churchmen in Ireland have taken a decided attitude of opposition.

The Government bill of 1912 providing for disestablishment follows closely upon the lines of the bill of 1895 and of 1909. On the first day of July next after the passing of the bill into an act, the four Welsh dioceses would cease to be parts of the Province of Canterbury, and thus discontinue their representation in Convocation. The ecclesiastical corporations within the dioceses would be dissolved, and the ecclesiastical jurisdiction abolished. Power was given to hold Synods to provide for the future government of the new "independent Church." As regards Disendowment, the Church was to have an income to begin with of £87,000 a year (in lieu of the present income of the four dioceses of £260,000). The existing parochial incumbents would continue to receive their present incomes out of the endowments as long as they retained their office. Any incumbent who retired owing to old age or infirmity would be entitled to receive one-third of his former income. The sum received by the Church would be gradually reduced from 20*s.* in the pound until finally it "might drop" to 6*s.* 8*d.* It was provided that the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty might continue their grants, which would increase the total income of the Church to the supposed amount of £180,000. As regards the machinery of the bill, there would come into existence two bodies. There would be Welsh Commissioners for the period of three, or five, years, whose function it would be to receive the existing Church property and to allocate and distribute it. The "Disestablished Church" was to have power to set up a representative body, to whom would be transferred the Cathedrals, parochial churches, chapels, palaces, deaneries, and parsonage houses. The Commissioners would hand over to the representative body all the modern endowments. A sum of £26,700 a year, now the income of the Welsh Bishopries and Cathedral Chapters, would be handed over by the Commissioners to the University of Wales, to be divided between the colleges, the Museum, and the library. The rest of the income available would be transferred by the Commissioners to the councils of the counties in which the land from which the tithe came was situated, and for them to make schemes of local general utility.

A protest against this bill was made by the province of Canterbury in both its houses in May, the vote in the Upper House standing 21 to 3, the Bishops of Hereford, Lincoln, and Oxford voting in the minority, while in the Lower House the vote of protest was nearly unanimous.

On its second reading the bill came to a vote in the House of Commons in May and it was passed to its next stage by a majority of 81, though the normal Government majority in the House of Commons is 114. Beyond that stage the bill has not passed during the year.

In Ireland the Church has taken an active stand against the proposed Home Rule policy of the Government. A special synod of the Irish Church was called in April, when a protest was carried by a large majority in both houses. The protest read in part as follows:

"That we, the Bishops, clergy, and laity of the Church of Ireland solemnly assembled in general Synod, and invoking the guidance and protection of Almighty God, hereby affirm our constant allegiance to the Throne and our unswerving attachment to the legislative union now subsisting between Great Britain and Ireland. We make this declaration at the present crisis not as adherents of a party nor on behalf of a class but as a body of Irishmen, representing more than half a million of Irish people holding various political opinions, following different callings, and sharing at the same time a common desire for the honor and welfare of our native land."

A further protest was made in September by the Archbishop of Armagh and the four Bishops in the province of Ulster by means of a pastoral letter, in which the Bishops, declaring that "we are face to face with a great crisis in the religious and political history of our beloved native land," asked that "Sunday, September the 22nd, may be observed as a day of special humiliation and prayer in all our churches for God's mercy and guidance. Let all our services on that day be marked by deep personal humiliation and confession of sin; by intercession for all who are in positions of authority, that they may have grace to be faithful to the public interest; by supplication on behalf of our fellow-countrymen of all classes and creeds, that they may learn to work together for the common good; and above all by earnest and devout prayer 'that truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations.'"

The English episcopate has suffered the loss by death of Dr. Stubbs, Bishop of Truro, who is succeeded by the Rt. Rev. W. O. Burrows, D.D.,; and the Rt. Rev. Thomas W. Drury, D.D., Bishop of Sodor and Man, has been translated to the vacant see of Ripon. In his place in the former diocese there has been consecrated as Bishop the Rt. Rev. James Denton Thompson. The Rev. J. P. Maud has been consecrated Bishop Suffragan of Kensington in the diocese of London.

FAITH AND ORDER, WORLD CONFERENCE ON

The Joint Commission has been continuing its work as in the previous year. A Commission has been appointed by the Church of England in Canada. The greater number of the leading Protestant bodies in the United States have now appointed Commissions to represent them.

A formal invitation to participate in the arrangements for the Conference has been addressed to the Old Catholic Churches in Europe. In June 1912, a deputation consisting of the Bishop of Chicago, President of the Commission, the Bishop of Southern Ohio, Chairman of the House of Bishops, the Bishop of Vermont, and the Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Plan and Scope, visited Great Britain, and secured the promise of the appointment of coöperating Commissions by the Church of England in England, the Episcopal Church of Scotland, and the Church of Ireland; and the Metropolitan of South Africa, who was fortunately in England at the time of the visit of the deputation, promised to lay the matter before his Synod on his return. A memorandum was drawn by the Archbishop of Canterbury, expressing the conclusions of the Conference between the American Deputation and the English Bishops, of which the main features are:

(1) That the Archbishops of Canterbury and York appoint a committee in the Church of England to "organize, support, and help in England," and "to stimulate general interest and regular and widespread prayer" in the matter of the conference.

(2) That invitation to the various religious bodies in England to take part in bringing about and conducting the conference be extended to them by their co-religionists in America.

(3) That the committee of the Church of England should "markedly hold itself in readiness to confer with such bodies or committees as may be appointed in the non-Episcopal Churches; or, if so be, with those who might represent the Roman or Eastern Churches."

(4) The Archbishop of Canterbury expressed the opinion, which was concurred in by the representatives of the Church of England, that it would facilitate the matter of coöperation of the Church of England, if the American origin of the conference should be borne in mind, and the possibility or probability that the conference, when held, should be on American soil. This, however, was not, in any way, suggested by any of the American deputation.

The Commission has continued to circulate the Report of its Committee on Plan and Scope, of which about 150,000 copies have now been sent out.

It has also printed and sent to each clergyman of the Church in America and to all the Anglican Bishops a paper by the Rev. Francis J. Hall, D.D., entitled "The World Conference and the Problem of Unity," and a letter urging prayer, study, and conference and an earnest effort to get into touch with and to understand our brother Christians.

In the summer of 1912 an Official Statement as to the object of the Conference was printed and is still being distributed; 125,000 copies have been printed, and doubtless more will be needed, as it is being sent to all who have applied to be entered upon the mailing list, and to all the ministers of our own and the other Communions in the United States which have appointed Commissions, and to the Cardinals and Bishops of the Roman Catholic Church throughout the world and to their clergy in the United States. Many requests are being received for additional copies.

The prayers suggested by the Commission have been printed on a card for convenient use, personally or in church.

The action of the General Convention in appointing the Commission has been translated into Russian and Dutch, in addition to the translations made the year before into modern Greek, Latin, Italian, German, French, and Swedish.

Many conferences have been held with individuals and small groups of members of other Communions and there have been an increasing number of opportunities to present the matter to congregations, Church Clubs, and other organizations.

The National Conference of Church Clubs wil make the Conference and Unity the theme of its annual meeting in May 1913.

Thousands of cordial and sympathetic letters have been received from all parts of the world, from Roman Catholics, from every leading Protestant communion, from our own clergy and laity, and those of the Church of England.

Copies of any of the publications may be obtained from the Secretary, Mr. Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Maine. The secretary will also enter on the mailing list for future publications all who express a wish for them.

GEORGIA, DIOCESE OF

At the diocesan convention in May the question of negro Bishops, Missionary or Suffragan, was introduced by a committee report and was carefully discussed, with the result that action was deferred until another year. The general trend of sentiment in the convention appeared to be against the negro Missionary bishopric and in favor of a negro Suffragan episcopate.

HOUSE OF BISHOPS

The House of Bishops has held two special sessions during the year. The first of these was held at the Church Missions House, New York, on October 26 and 27, 1911, 65 Bishops being present. The resignation of Bishop MACKAY-SMITH as Bishop of Pennsylvania was accepted to take effect February 10, 1912. Bishop Mackay-Smith, however, died before that date. The House of Bishops elected the Rev. HENRY ST. GEORGE TUCKER to be Missionary Bishop of Kyoto, Japan, and the Rev. DANIEL TRUMBULL HUNTINGTON to be Missionary Bishop of Wuhu. The House declined to grant a memorial asking for division of the missionary district of South Dakota and voted to transfer Bishop Rowe from Alaska to the bishopric of South Dakota. Questions relating to missionary work in the Canal Zone and South America were laid over until the next General Convention. The needs and condition of the Church in Haiti received careful consideration by reason of the death of Bishop Holly and the uncertainty as to what step might best be taken to fill that vacancy. A Council of Advice consisting of the Bishop of New York, the Bishop of Washington, and Bishop Lloyd, was appointed to suggest what steps to take in the matter.

The second session was held in the Synod Hall of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York, on April 12, 1912, when 65 members were present. The resignations of the Rt. Rev. Dr. James H. Van Buren as Missionary Bishop of Porto Rico and the Rt. Rev. Dr. William M. Brown as Bishop of Arkansas, both tendered on account of ill health, were accepted with expressions of appreciation for their services. The House recalled the transfer of Bishop Rowe to the district of South Dakota, acquiescing in Bishop Rowe's desire to continue as Bishop of Alaska. The Presiding Bishop was asked to put the district of Porto Rico under the charge of the Missionary Bishop of Cuba until the next General Convention, and the appointment was made. The National Convocation of the "Orthodox Apostolic Church" in Haiti having requested the House of Bishops to take charge of its affairs, the Presiding Bishop appointed and commissioned the Rt. Rev. Dr. Knight, Bishop of Cuba, to exercise episcopal supervision and administration in Haiti. The Presiding Bishop announced that under his appointment the Missionary Bishop of North Dakota remains in charge of the vacant missionary district of New Mexico until such time as a Bishop is consecrated. The Presiding Bishop was requested in calling future special meetings of the House of Bishops to appoint them, so far as possible, in the different departments in rotation.

The Rev. GEORGE BILLER, JR., Dean of the Cathedral, Sioux Falls, S. D., was elected on the third ballot to be Missionary Bishop of South Dakota, and the Rev. Herman Page, D.D., rector of St. Paul's Church, Chicago, was elected on the third ballot Missionary Bishop of New Mexico. Mr. Biller accepted his election but Dr. Page subsequently declined.

HUNTINGTON, DANIEL TRUMBULL,

First Bishop of Wuhu, was born in Norwich, Conn., August 4th, 1868, and after graduating at Yale University in 1892, entered upon his preparations for holy orders and was ordained deacon by Bishop Williams of Connecticut in 1895. He proceeded at once to China for the work of the mission at Hankow, and in 1896 was advanced to the priesthood by Bishop Graves. He was transferred to Ichang in 1900, where he continued until his elevation to the episcopate. The missionary district of Wuhu was created by the House of Bishops at the General Convention of 1910, and after the declination of the Rev. Dr. Pott, who was first chosen to be its Bishop, Mr. Huntington was elected at the special session of the House of Bishops in October 1911. He was consecrated in St. John's Pro-Cathedral, Shanghai, on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation, 1912, the Rt. Rev. Frederick Rogers Graves, D.D., Bishop of Shanghai, presiding. The Rt. Rev. Logan Herbert Roots, D.D., Bishop of Hankow, and the Rt. Rev. Herbert James Molony, D.D., Bishop of Chekiang, officiated as co-consecrators. The Rt. Rev. William Wharton Cassels, D.D., Bishop of West China, also participated in the service and joined in the laying on of hands. The consecration sermon was preached by Bishop Roots, and the attending presbyters were the Rev. Li Yuen Lin and the Rev. Edmund Jennings Lee, both of the Wuhu district. The Rev. Edmund Lee Woodward, M.D., was the deputy registrar, and the Rev. Gouvernour Frank Mosher acted as master of ceremonies.

INDIA

A religious census taken in 1911 and, as reported in The East and the West, showed the strength of Anglican Christianity in India to have increased within the ten years, 1901-1911, from 213,008 to 332,000—that is, an increase of 56.2 per cent. Only one out of every eight Christians in India is in communion with the Anglican Church, or, if we take Indian Christians alone, only one in 11. Comparing the rate at which Roman and non-Roman missions have progressed during the last decade, we find that the Roman Missions show an increase of 24.8 per cent, whilst the non-Roman Missions, taken as a whole, show an increase of 45 per cent. The progress which Indian Christianity has made, as compared with other religions, during the last ten years, is as follows: Christianity, 34.2 per cent.; Hinduism and animistic religions, 6 per cent.; Mohammedanism, 5 per cent.

The following table shows the increase in the total Christian population of India during the last ten years. The figures in gothic type are those of the present census:

At the request of the Bishop the diocese, at its annual convention held in May, entered into the election of a Suffragan Bishop, making choice of the Rev. Harry Sherman Longley, rector of St. Mark's Church, Evanston, Ill. Mr. Longley was elected on the sixth ballot. Of thirty-eight clerical votes, he received twenty-one, and of ninety-one lay delegates' votes he received fifty-five. On previous ballots, the Rev. John Arthur, D.D., of Cedar Rapids, and the Rev. John C. Sage of Keokuk, were the leading candidates; others receiving votes were the Rev. Ralph P. Smith of Sioux City, the Rev. John C. Linsley of Connecticut, the Very Rev. W. T. Sumner of Chicago, and the Rev. W. D. Williams of Iowa City. The election of Mr. Longley was made unanimous upon motion of the Rev. John C. Sage.

The addition of a Suffragan Bishop to the working force of the diocese was made possible through the increase of the Iowa Episcopal Fund, which has now a capital of more than $95,000. Nearly half of that was raised within the last two years through the work of a special committee of which the Rev. John C. Sage was chairman.

KANSAS, DIOCESE OF

At the request of the Bishop the annual convention held in June determined to elect a Bishop Coadjutor, as the result of which the Rev. H. PERCY SILVER, field secretary of the Seventh Missionary Department, was chosen on the sixth ballot. The result of the several ballots was as follows:

The work assigned to the Coadjutor, to take effect after his consecration, is the charge of the missions of the diocese and of missionary work.

LONGLEY, HARRY SHERMAN,

Bishop Suffragan of Iowa, was born at Cohoes, N. Y., September 10, 1868, and was educated at St. Paul's parochial school, Troy, and St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y., from which latter he took the degrees of A.B. in 1891 and A.M. in 1896. He entered the General Theological Seminary and was graduated in 1894. In the same year, on May 19th, he was ordained deacon and a year later, June 8, 1895, priest by Bishop Doane of Albany, and spent his diaconate as assistant at St. Paul's Church, Troy. From 1895 until 1899 he was rector of Trinity Church, Milford, Mass.; from 1899 till 1911 rector of Christ Church, Binghamton, N. Y.; and from the latter year till his elevation to the episcopate, rector of St. Mark's Church, Evanston, Ill. While in the diocese of Central New York he was examining chaplain, rural dean, and member of the diocesan Board of Missions, and sat in the General Conventions of 1907 and 1910 as a deputy from that diocese. At the commencement of St. Stephen's College in 1912 he received the degree of D.D. He was elected Bishop Suffragan of Iowa on the sixth ballot at the annual convention of 1912, and his consecration was fixed for October 23, 1912.

MACKAY-SMITH, ALEXANDER, D.D.,

Sixth Bishop of Pennsylvania, born in New Haven, Conn., June 2, 1850, died in Philadelphia, November 16, 1911. He was of New England ancestry, was educated at St. Paul's School, Concord, and at Trinity College and the General Theological Seminary, followed by study abroad, and was ordered deacon in 1876 by Bishop Williams of Connecticut and priest in 1877 by Bishop Paddock of Massachusetts. His diaconate was spent as assistant minister of All Saints', Worcester, Mass., whence he went to Grace Church, South Boston, for three years, spent in city mission work. He was assistant at St. Thomas' Church, New York, from 1880 to 1887, and then became Archdeacon of New York, and for five years was intimately associated with Bishop Potter in missionary work in that diocese. In 1893 he was elected rector of St. John's Church, Washington, where he spent a happy ministry of nine years. It is well known that he left his parish with much reluctance when he was chosen Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania in 1902, having previously declined an election as Coadjutor of Kansas. He was consecrated on the feast of SS. Philip and James, 1902, in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, by Bishops Doane, Scarborough, Whitehead, Potter, Talbot, Adams, Leonard, Satterlee, McVickar, and Mills (of Ontario). His episcopate was marked by faithful and unremitting labor, as assistant to the aged Bishop Whitaker, but was shadowed for years by increasing physical disability. In 1908 he went abroad for rest and medical treatment and was absent for almost a year. On the death of Bishop Whitaker in February, 1911, he succeeded to the see, but yielding to the urgent advice of his physicians, he asked, at the annual convention of the diocese in May, 1911, for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor and also a Suffragan, and at the time of the consecration of Drs. Rhinelander and Garland to those offices, he announced that his resignation had been presented to the House of Bishops, to take effect February 10, 1912. Bishop Mackay-Smith received the degree of D.D. from Trinity College in 1889, and S.T.D. from Hobart the same year. He was widely known and honored in the Church, and had taken an active part in the civic and philanthropic affairs of Philadelphia. His private fortune was administered as a trust from God, and his gifts to missions and charities were many and generous. Among the last acts of his life were the offer of his beautiful house to the diocese for an episcopal residence and the donation of a goodly sum to the parish of All Souls for the Deaf, toward the building of their new church and parish house. He entertained the clergy and people of the diocese frequently and most hospitably in his own home, and lent ready aid to every appeal for support in the work of the parishes and institutions under his care.

MASSACHUSETTS, DIOCESE OF

During the year the formalities necessary for the transition of St. Paul's Church, Boston, to the Cathedral of the diocese of Massachusetts were completed. At the diocesan convention in April the tender of the parish corporation was accepted by the convention, the Bishop reviewing in his annual address the steps that had led up toward this event. The plan is to hold the present down-town church for Cathedral purposes for the next twenty-five years or more, during which time the bequest of Miss Walker, amounting to more than a million dollars, shall be allowed to accumulate, and when the proper time for the erection of a new Cathedral building shall seem ripe, the fund may be available for the purpose. In the meantime St. Paul's has been remodeled for the purpose of adapting it to Cathedral uses, and it is hoped that an endowment for its maintenance may be secured.

McELWAIN, FRANK ARTHUR, D.D.,

Bishop Suffragan of Minnesota, was born in Warsaw, N. Y., on December 14, 1875. He was graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1899, with the degree of B.A. His theological education was received at Seabury Divinity School, Faribault, from which institution he was graduated with the degree of B.D. in 1902. Soon after he received the degree of M.A. from Trinity College. He was ordered deacon by Bishop Atwill of West Missouri on St. Barnabas' Day, 1902, and priest by the same Bishop on February 10, 1903. The first three years of his ministry were spent in the diocese of West Missouri, for the most part in missionary work. In 1905 he was chosen instructor in the Old and New Testament at Seabury Divinity School, and in January 1907, on the death of the Rev. George H. Davis, D.D., he was elected Warden of the same institution, retaining the chair of Old Testament. He became Dean of the Cathedral of Our Merciful Saviour on September 11, 1911. He was an examining chaplain from 1905 to 1912, a member of the ecclesiastical court of the diocese from 1907 to 1912, and a deputy to the General Convention of 1910. Mr. McElwain received the degree of D.D. from Seabury Divinity School at the Commencement, May 21, 1912. On November 17, 1903, he was married to Miss Helen Cantwell De Muth. He was elected Bishop Suffragan of Minnesota at the annual convention of that diocese in May 1912. The date of his consecration was fixed for October 30, 1912.

MINNESOTA, DIOCESE OF

At the annual convention in May the diocese elected the Rev. Frank Arthur McElwain, D.D., to be Bishop Suffragan, acceding to a request of the Bishop that a Suffragan be chosen. His salary was fixed in advance at $3,000. There were three ballots as follows:

NEW YORK, DIOCESE OF

It was determined in November 1911 that a synod hall should be erected on the Cathedral grounds at a cost of about $250,000, especially for the accommodation of the House of Deputies at the coming General Convention, retaining the present synod hall for gatherings requiring less seating capacity. It was announced at Christmas time that since the opening of the Choir and Crossing in April, $1,000,000 had been contributed for the building of three memorial chapels, a bronze and marble pulpit had been erected by Mrs. Russell Sage in memory of Bishop Potter, choir school buildings are to be erected at the cost of $150,000 as the gift of Mrs. J. J. Blodgett, and the amount had been pledged for the new synod hall. In March it was announced that the episcopal residence in Gramercy Park had been sold and a new episcopal residence would be erected on the Cathedral grounds. In the meantime an office is arranged for the Bishop in the old Diocesan House, 416 Lafayette St.

PENNSYLVANIA, DIOCESE OF

The consecration of the Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania, and of the Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., to be Bishop Suffragan of the diocese took place in the Church of the Advocate, Philadelphia, on October 28, 1911, the Presiding Bishop officiating, with the Bishops of Pennsylvania (Dr. Mackay-Smith), and Pittsburgh as co-consecrators. These were joined in the laying of hands upon Dr. Rhinelander by the Bishops of Connecticut, Massachusetts, Delaware, Washington, Rhode Island, and North Carolina; and in the laying on of hands upon Dr. Garland by the Bishops of Wyoming, Bethlehem, Harrisburg, New Jersey, Erie, and Bishop Lloyd. Only nineteen days after that, on November 16th, the Bishop of the diocese, Dr. Alexander Mackay-Smith, passed to his rest, having been Bishop of the diocese for but little more than nine months since the death of Bishop Whitaker. Bishop Rhinelander thereupon became Diocesan.

Bishop Mackay-Smith had, prior to his death, offered his handsome residence on South Twenty-second Street to the diocese, and after his death the offer was renewed by his widow. It may be used for the Bishop's residence, or as an administration building, or it may be sold, either now or later. The trust requires that there be "no limitation as to the sale of the property, but if used for either or both of the above purposes for a term of at least twenty years, one-half of the proceeds of any sale may be used for the purchase or erection of an episcopal residence or administration house, to be called the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial House, and the remaining one-half invested—as the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial Fund, the income to be annually divided among the clergy in charge of parishes or missions in the diocese who are receiving the minimum salary fixed by canon, and to be an addition to such salary. If not used for either or both of the aforesaid purposes, for a term of at least twenty years, all the proceeds of the sale shall be invested as the Bishop Mackay-Smith Memorial Fund, to aid the clergy receiving minimum salaries."

To meet the cost of maintenance, Mrs. Mackay-Smith gives $5,000 to be invested as a maintenance fund, and agrees to add to this another $5,000 if the house be used for the Bishop's residence or offices. Should the house be sold, the fund is to be added to the principal accruing from the sale.

The property thus tendered is valued at about $125,000, and has been accepted by the diocese.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, GENERAL BOARD OF

This important organization held meetings on January 23rd and 24th in Chicago and on June 11th and 12th in Philadelphia, in both of which the policy of the organization was outlined and at the latter the Rev. William E. Gardner was elected General Secretary of the Board with a view of stimulating the organization and the efficiency of Sunday Schools. The Board is studying the educational problem with a view toward suggesting methods and material for use and stimulating the clergy, teachers of religion, and of Church people to higher standards of religious education as well as to systematize religious education in the Church.

SILVER, HORACE PERCY,

Bishop Coadjutor-elect of Kansas, was born in the city of Philadelphia, April 15, 1871, and was graduated at the General Theological Seminary in the class of 1894, in which year he was ordained deacon and in the year following priest by Bishop Worthington of Nebraska. He spent two years in charge of St. Andrew's Church, Omaha, after which for three years he was rector of Holy Trinity, Lincoln, Neb., and then from 1891 to 1901 rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Omaha, and Canon of Trinity Cathedral. From 1901 to 1910 he was chaplain in the United States Army and in the latter year was appointed Department Secretary of the Seventh Department, which position he still holds. He was elected Bishop Coadjutor of Kansas at the diocesan convention held in June.

SOUTH CAROLINA, DIOCESE OF

The question of appointing a Suffragan Bishop for supervision of Negro work in the diocese was discussed at the annual convention in May, the Bishop presenting the matter and giving the plan his strong endorsement.

The Council voted, however, "that the Council is not in favor of the election of a Negro Suffragan Bishop at this time." It was then determined that an Archdeacon for Negro work be appointed.

SOUTHERN OHIO, DIOCESE OF

At the annual Convention in May, Bishop Vincent asked for the election of a Coadjutor and offered to surrender $1,000 of his salary, which offer the Convention declined to accept. The work assigned to the Coadjutor was that portion outside the Cincinnati Convocation. The result of the first ballot was the unanimous choice, with the exception of one vote, of the Rt. Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Alaska. Bishop Rowe, however, subsequently declined the election.

TENNESSEE, DIOCESE OF

The Bishop asked consideration of the subject of increased episcopal supervision within the state and presented four alternative possibilities: the division into three dioceses, a Bishop Coadjutor on ground of extent of diocesan work, a missionary district in eastern Tennessee, or a Bishop Suffragan. The subject was referred to a special committee of seven to act during the coming year, to publish from time to time its findings, and to report to the next Convention, which meets at Sewanee, and which will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the Bishop's consecration.

TEXAS, DIOCESE OF

At the annual Council in May it was resolved that the consent of the Church at large be asked for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor by reason of extent of diocesan work. The subject came before the Council by an adverse report presented by a committee appointed a year ago, which held that it had been impossible to secure any sufficient guarantee of the funds for the salary of a Bishop Coadjutor. The Council reversed the view of this committee upon the consideration of the matter by a committee newly appointed for the purpose, which reported that it was not only expedient but necessary that a Bishop Coadjutor be elected and that the Bishop as soon as possible call a special Council for this purpose. In its report the committee stated that it had inquired into the matter of salary and expense which now was guaranteed and secured. This resolution of the committee was received with open enthusiasm and passed unanimously.

TOLL, WILLIAM E., D.D.,

Bishop Suffragan of Chicago, was born in Bedford, England, November 29, 1843. He was graduated at Nashotah Theological Seminary with the degree of B.D. in 1871, in which year he was also ordained deacon and the year following priest by Bishop Whitehouse of Chicago. He spent his diaconate as assistant at Grace Church, Chicago, and then from 1872 to 1874 was rector of St. James' Church, Cleveland; from 1874 to 1881 rector of St. Peter's Church, Sycamore, Ill.; from 1881 to 1907 rector of Christ Church, Waukegan, Ill.; and in the latter year became Archdeacon of the diocese of Chicago, continuing as such until his elevation to the episcopate. He was elected Bishop Suffragan of Chicago at a special convention in October 1911, and was consecrated in Grace Church in that city on St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 27, 1911, by the Presiding Bishop, assisted by the Bishops of Chicago, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio, Michigan City, Milwaukee, and Western Michigan. The latter named of these preached the sermon. The attending presbyters were the Rev. Luther Pardee and the Rev. Herman Page, D.D., while the Very Rev. Dean Sumner acted as deputy registrar and Rev. George Craig Stewart as master of ceremonies. He received the degree of D.D. from Nashotah in 1912.

TUCKER, HENRY ST. GEORGE, D.D.,

second Missionary Bishop of Kyoto, Japan, was born in Warsaw, Va., on July 16, 1874. He is a son of the Rt. Rev. Beverley D. Tucker, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia. He was educated at the University of Virginia and at the Virginia Theological Seminary, and was ordained both as deacon and as priest in 1899 by Bishop Randolph of Southern Virginia. Proceeding at once to Japan, he entered into the missionary work of the district of Tokyo, being appointed professor at St. Paul's College and also given charge of All Saints' Church, Tokyo. Subsequently he became president of St. Paul's College. He was a member of the Bishop's Council of Advice in the missionary district when, at the special session of the House of Bishops in October 1911, he was elected Missionary Bishop of Kyoto. He was consecrated in the Cathedral at Kyoto on March 25, the Feast of the Annunciation, 1912, by the Rt. Rev. John McKim, D.D., Bishop of Tokyo, with the English Bishops of South Tokyo and Osaka as co-consecrators; the former, with the Bishop of Hokkaido, acting as presenting Bishops. Bishop McKim was the preacher, and the attending presbyters were the Rev. J. J. Chapman and the Rev. Dr. Motoda. The consecration service was that of the Japanese Prayer Book, the promise of conformity being made first in English and then in Japanese, and the words of consecration being pronounced in English and afterward translated by the Bishop of Osaka into the Japanese form. Bishop Tucker is the author of Reconciliation Through Christ, published in Japanese and translated into English.

VERMONT, DIOCESE OF

The hope that a summer abroad might restore the Bishop completely to his former health being disappointed, the diocesan Convention, held in September, having been postponed from June, resolved to grant the request of the Bishop for the election of a Coadjutor, for which it was determined that a special Convention should be held, probably in November. The salary of the Bishop Coadjutor was fixed at $3,000 and a committee was appointed to secure pledges and contributions for this amount to range over a period of five years.

WASHINGTON, DIOCESE OF

The opening and benediction of the Bethlehem Chapel of the Holy Nativity as the beginnig of the future Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul was the chief event of the year and was the occasion of a series of functions beginning on the feast of SS. Philip and James, May 1st. Services extended over the entire week following and there were sermons by a number of the most distinguished Bishops and priests of the Church. The Bethlehem Chapel is a memorial to Bishop Satterlee and a portion of the crypt of the Cathedral. Both architecturally and in adornment it is in every respect worthy of the important see in which it is erected.

WESTERN MASSACHUSETTS, DIOCESE OF

The consecration of the Rev. Thomas Frederick Davies, D.D., as second Bishop of Western Massachusetts, took place on October 17, 1911, at All Saints' Church, Worcester, the Presiding Bishop officiating with the Bishops of Massachusetts and Connecticut as co-consecrators; while the Bishop of Long Island preached the sermon and the Bishops of Maine and Michigan were the presenters. These, with the Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire and the Bishops of Rhode Island and Pennsylvania joined in the laying on of hands.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

Established October 25, 1880, by the General Convention. It aims to raise a fund of $1,000,000 by annual offerings from all congregations (as recommended by the General Convention) and by individual gifts. Portions of the principal are loaned to build churches and rectories. Out of the accumulated interest donations are made to complete new churches. The officers of the corporation are: President, Rt. Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D.; Vice-President, Rt. Rev. C. Kinloch Nelson, D.D.; Second Vice-President and Secretary, General James Grant Wilson; Treasurer, Mr. George Gordon King; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. Newton Perkins; Assistant Treasurer, Mr. E. Walter Roberts. The office of the Commission is at the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York. The amount of the Fund is $522,509.42. Has made gifts amounting to $155,099.88, and loans amounting to $764,419.00.

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

The Official General Society of the Church for the Pension and Relief of clergy, widows, and orphans.

The General Convention recommends an annual offering from each church; that a percentage of the Communion alms be given to this fund; that it be remembered in legacies, bequests, and wills; and given the Royalty on the Hymnals.

The Society systematically secures and pays out Pension and Relief to about 600 persons and requires for this purpose about $30,000 per quarter.

The obligation is that of the whole Church, the Society is only the agent and can do only so much as the Church gives it to do with. About 67 dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions, merged with it, depend upon the General Clergy Relief Fund alone for Pension and Relief. Churchmen should contribute annually as a matter of course, because the stability and efficiency of the ministry depend upon the just care of the sick priest in poverty and neglect.

All churches and clergy should be on the record of offerings. Remember the fund by legacies and bequests in wills.

Trustees: Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., President; Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, D.D., Vice-President; Mr. Elihu Chauncey, Secretary; Rev. Reese F. Alsop, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, Mr. Roland S. Morris.

Central Office (to which all communications should be addressed): The Church House, 12th and Walnut Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. Alfred J. P. McClure, Treasurer and Financial Agent.

"Christian Unity Foundation." (Inc. 1910.)

Offices, 143 East 37th St., New York. A voluntary and Unofficial Organization, formed: To promote Christian Unity at home and throughout the world. To this end, to gather and disseminate accurate information relative to the faith and works of all Christian bodies: To set forth the great danger of our unhappy divisions and the waste of spiritual energy due thereto: To devise and suggest practical methods of coöperation, substituting comity for rivalry in the propagation of the common faith: To bring together all who are laboring in the same field, and this in the belief that full knowledge of one another will emphasize our actual membership in the one body of Christ and our common agreement in the essentials of faith. That, finally, by the operation of the Spirit of God, the various Christian bodies may be knit together in more evident unity in the essentials of faith and practice and in one organic life.

Necrology

NOVEMBER 1st, 1911, TO NOVEMBER 1st, 1912

"He gave some, Apostles; and some, Prophets; and some, Evangelists; and some, Pastors and Teachers; for the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the Ministry, for the edifying of the Body of Christ. Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."—Eph. iv. 11, 12, 13.

Diocesan and Parochial Information.

Diocesan officers of national organizations, such as Woman's Auxiliary, Girls' Friendly Society, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, etc., and also officers of Church Clubs and of Sunday School organizations, are printed in the department of Official and General Institutions, beginning page 106.

The statistics of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction have been compiled in nearly every case, from the official statistics given in their respective journals, and the sheets have been revised by the Bishops or Secretaries of the Dioceses, to the latest moment possible. The numbers following the name of a Parish indicate the reported number of Communicants therein. The Clergy will confer a favor by forwarding corrections to be made in the next issue of THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL promptly to the office of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN CO., 484 Milwaukee Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Names of clergymen recorded are confined to those officially reported in diocesan journals or otherwise certified to the publishers as in good standing in some American diocese.

Titles of Institutions enclosed in quotation marks are those of legal corporations.

ARRANGEMENT OF PAROCHIAL LISTS

Each clergyman's name appears ONCE under the head either of "Parishes, Missions and Clergy," or "Non-Parochial Clergy," in the Diocese with which he is canonically connected. Where one of his cures is also his P. O. address, his name will there be found. If he has no cure at his P. O. address, his name will appear at his cure, with his P. O. in parentheses. Lesser points ministered to by the same clergyman will have references in italic to his main cure. Thus:

"Athens, S. Timothy's, r. New Decatur."

This reference in italics indicates that the rector of New Decatur is in charge of S. Timothy's, Athens. His name will be found by looking at "New Decatur." This obviates the delays, expense, and annoyance of sending mail matter for the rector of New Decatur to his lesser cure at Athens.

Where the P. O. is not the same as the principal cure, it is designated thus:

Montevallo, S. Andrew's, T. J. Beard, D.D. (Birmingham).

This shows that the missionary at Montevallo resides at Blrmingham, but has no charge in the latter city.

This method has the advantage of showing at a glance the correct P. O. address of each of the clergy in any given Diocese, and also shows which is the principal, and which the lesser, charge of any one clergyman.

r.=rector; m.=minister, missionary; loc. ten.=locum tenens; rec. emer.=rector emeritus; rec. hon.=rector honorarius; off.=officiating; cur.=curate. Names in italics (found only in certain Missionary Districts, as Alaska) are those of lay workers.

A Classified Index

TO THE ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS OF THE CHURCH WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND ITS POSSESSIONS.

The greatly increased number of corporate activities of the Church in recent years seems to make necessary this attempt to coördinate those in particular lines, whether Official, General, or Local. This Classified Index has therefore been prepared, in which the names of organizations for specific purpose, wheresoever they may be described in the pages of this book, are now brought together under appropriate headings. Organizations and institutions of the Foreign Missionary Districts are not here included.

The abbreviations at the left of the following pages are used as follows:

Of.=Official—by authority of General Convention, or of some body created by General Convention.

Gen.=General institutions, not limited to single dioceses, but not offieial.

Abbreviations designating Religious Orders, which have the management of institutions so designated, and to be found specifically by reference to the pages eited.

Abbreviations denoting the Diocese under which the institution may be located. As the Dioceses are arranged alphabetically it is deemed unnecessary to refer to these by page also. Institutions that are recorded both under the head of "Religious Orders" and of specific Dioceses are here chronicled with the former and not the latter reference.

The Judicial, Missionary, and Sunday School Departments of the American Church.

The dioceses and missionary districts of the American Church are now grouped by canonical provision into eight Judicial, eight Missionary, and eight Sunday School Departments. The territorial grouping is stated below, and will also appear from the map printed herewith. The three sorts of Departments, though organized within the same areas, are totally distinct from each other and provision is made for them in different parts of the canons. The Judicial Departments are created by Canon 30, the Missionary Departments by Canon 53, and the Sunday School Departments by Canon 55 of the Digest.

THE DEPARTMENT AREAS.

(Alike for Judicial, Missionary, and Sunday School Departments.)

FIRST DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses within New England.

SECOND DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses within the States of New York and New Jersey, and the Missionary District of Porto Rico.

THIRD DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses within the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

FOURTH DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses within the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

FIFTH DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses within the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin.

SIXTH DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, and Wyoming.

SEVENTH DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States of Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico territory.

EIGHTH DEPARTMENT.

Comprises the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the States and Territories of Idaho, Utah, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, California, Arizona, Alaska, Hawaii, and Philippine Islands.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENTS.

The function of the Judicial Departments is to provide Courts of Review of the trial of a presbyter or a deacon under the provisions of Canon 30. Members of the Courts have heretofore been elected by General Convention, but, by amendment of Canon 30, Section 4, in 1910, it is now provided that "Each Department shall prescribe the manner in which the Court of Review shall be chosen."

MISSIONARY DEPARTMENTS.

In each Missionary Department there is organized a Department Missionary Council, consisting of the Bishops and four clergymen and four laymen from each Diocese and Missionary District, unless the number of members be changed by order of the Department Council itself. Each of these Department Missionary Councils is entitled to elect one Bishop, one clergyman, and one layman as members of the General Board of Missions. For names of members so elected, see page 121.

Organization of the Department Missionary Councils is as follows:

A COAT OF ARMS

Arms of English families. Arms of Scotch families. Arms of Irish families.
Arms of German families. Arms of French families. Arms of Welsh families.

I undertake to supply a water color painting, six by nine inches, of any family Coat-of-Arms, for $4.50.

Do you know that ladies never use a Crest and Motto on personal stationery, but rather the family arms within a lozenge shield?

Embossing dies produced correctly, $5.00 each.

Just Issued: "RINGROSE'S HERALDRY." Cloth. 175 pp. 8vo. Price, $2.00 post free. Prospectus on application. A Book for Every User of Arms. A book that concerns solely the history, origin, and explanation of heraldic ensigns.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE INCREASE OF THE MINISTRY

FOUNDED A. D. 1857

President—Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Hartford, Conn.
Recording Secretary—Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., Litchfield, Conn.
Corresponding Secretary—Rev. F. D. Hoskins, Hartford, Conn.
Treasurer—Elijah C. Johnson, Esq., National Exchange Bank, Hartford, Conn.

This society provides Scholarships for Students preparing for the Ministry of the Church. It confines its work to those who are taking a full academic course in approved Colleges, or the prescribed Seminary course, being college graduates.

For the last twelve months there have been fifty-one applicants. Thirteen hundred and sixty-eight students have been helped in fifty years. At present there are students on the Society Scholarships from every part of the National Church. Much of the work is of a Missionary character. The Church greatly needs such an agency. Contributions from parishes and individuals asked for.

Address, REV. F. D. HOSKINS, 86 Buckingham St., Hartford, Conn.

President, William L. Harvey. Active Vice-President, Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D. General Secretary, Rev. S. Lord Gilberson, A.M.
Treasurer, Alfred Lee, Esq.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to "THE EVANGELICAL EDUCATION SOCIETY OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH," incorporated by the legislature of Pennsylvania, the first Monday in November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine,———Dollars or———Real Estate, to be used for the general purpose of the Society.

The American Church Union

For the Maintenance and Defence of the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Church, as enshrined in the Book of Common Prayer. President, Mr. Clinton Rogers Woodruff. For further particulars address the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Elliot White, 960 Broad Street, Newark, N. J.

Pension and Relief

OF

Disabled Clergy, Widows and Orphans

A LIVING ISSUE — A PERSONAL APPEAL — HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED?

To help piece out the living of nearly 600 sick, disabled, old clergymen; their widows and orphans, at the present moment, under the grants, and therefore obligations, of the Trustees, and therefore the OBLIGATION OF THE WHOLE CHURCH, because the Trustees are the Church's agents; requires about $30,000 per quarter. Divided up, this amount is indeed too small, but in a majority of cases it means the difference between a measure of comfort and utter privation.

This current pension and relief is a fundamental obligation and a prior claim upon the Church.

Increasing demands for other enterprises must not crowd this out.

Quarterly payments have been delayed during the past year through lack of funds, and from more than 300 persons have come such letters of distress and apprehension as we hope we may never have cause to receive again.

Sixty-seven dioceses and missionary districts depend alone upon the General Clergy Relief Fund for pension and relief. It is the only national, official, incorporated society.

All contributions go to the object for which contributed. Royalties on Hymnals pay expenses.

Let every Church and all Churchmen contribute what they can regularly, annually, and the work can be carried on generously and without fear.

THE GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND,

REV. ALFRED J. P. McCLURE, Treasurer,

A BAPTISMAL SOUVENIR

A Prayer Book, 48mo size, bound in white leather, with gold cross at top and a "Name Panel" below, whereon the child's (or person's) name can be stamped in gold. The book contains also a Baptismal certificate ready to be filled out by the officiating minister, with blanks for names of the God-parents also. This is a pretty and a unique souvenir for one of the God-parents to present at the time of baptism, when the mother will surely preserve it carefully for the child till he come to "years of discretion." This style of Prayer Book has not been obtainable heretofore, but our experience proves to us its desirability. The book is No. 29 on our Prayer Book List and sells for $1.60, including marking and postage.

Communion Wines

THAT GIVE PERFECT SATISFACTION

Recommended by the Right Reverend Bishop of the Milwaukee Diocese, used by the Bishops at a number of Cathedrals, and the Reverend Clergy all over the United States. A Communion Wine absolutely pure, mild, and pleasing in every respect. Such are the facts concerning the celebrated Pommer's Golden Gate California B. Q. Malvoisie Altar Wine. An Altar Wine most agreeable, delicate, and delicious.

Whenever a Red Sweet Communion Wine is preferred, Pommer's Golden Gate B. Q. Mataro has proven most satisfactory.

The B. Q. MALVOISIE and B. Q. MATARO GRAPE WINES are also recommended by the following noted Milwaukee physicians: J. F. JERMAIN, M.D., Professor of Medicine in Wisconsin College of Physicians and Surgeons; DR. HENRY HARDER, instructor in Surgery and Assistant Surgeon, Milwaukee Medical College; DR. A. MOELLER; DR. WILLIAM SICKLES; DR. WILLIAM JOBSE; DR. JULIUS BRUESS.

Price: Per 5 gallon keg $ 7.50; Per 12 bottle case $ 5.00
" 10 " " 14.00; " 25 " " 10.00

FREIGHT CHARGES PREPAID on above quantities when the money accompanies the order, excepting shipments to the following states: Ark., Okla., Tex., La., Ala., Miss., Ga., Fla., N. C. and S. C. To above named states freight will only be paid on orders amounting to $10.00 or more. For particulars see price list. All territory lying west of North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Texas is excluded from the free freight offer.
